

Free I.R.S. Tax Filing: A Winning Issue

National survey of 1,421 registered voters, conducted August 31-September 5, 2023

Convenient and free tax filing should be a high priority for Congress.

How much of a priority should it be for Congress and the president to make it easier for taxpayers to prepare and file their taxes at no cost?

	High Priority %
Democrats	75
Independents	65
Republicans	67
Northeast	67
South	71
Midwest	69
West	70
Liberal	78
Moderate	65
Conservative	67

Voters across party lines overwhelmingly favor the IRS creating a free tax filing tool.

The IRS has proposed to create a simplified free tax filing tool directly on its website. With this tool, taxpayers would have the choice to file taxes for free on the IRS website but would still be able to prepare their own federal taxes or use paid services like TurboTax or H&R Block if they choose. Would you support or oppose the proposal?

	Support %
Democrats	95
Independents	86
Republicans	83
Northeast	87
South	89
Midwest	88
West	88
Liberal	95
Moderate	88
Conservative	83

Three in four say they would be likely to use free filing tool.

If this IRS free online tax preparation and filing option became available, how likely would you be to try this service instead of your current method of preparing taxes?

■ Very likely
■ Fairly likely
■ Fairly unlikely
■ Very unlikely

	Total Likely %
Online Filers	84
Northeast	77
South	77
Midwest	74
West	79
18-34	81
35-49	78
50-64	77
65+	71